STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES SINCE 1981
— FORTALECIENDO COMUNIDADES DESDE 1981 —

www.CLUES.org/Art

Stage Performers:

Baila Venezuela, a vibrant and exuberant dance troupe, led by Roiny Rojas as their Artistic Director and Choreographer.

Chico Chavez Orchestra, a 10-piece orchestra directed by Master percussionist-drummer Chico Chávez from Lima, Peru. Their music features Cumbia, Afro-indigenous tropical music from throughout Latin America, and Peruvian psychedelic Cumbia Chicha.

The Boriken Cultural Center is home to the BORIKEN Performing Group, a dance and music ensemble honoring and sharing the rich tradition of Bomba and Plena music from Puerto Rico.

Pamela Mercado-Michelli. An Afro-Latina originally from Puerto Rico, Pamela is a mother and children's book author who enjoys connecting communities through culture and literature.

Workshop Artists:

Cadex Herrera. (He/Him) is an established multi-disciplinary artist, born in Belize before immigrating to Minnesota in 1994. His work includes photography, muralism, illustration, and graphic design. His art is focused on bringing awareness to social injustices and championing his people. Enjoy his workshop: Zote Soap Sculpture.

Lynda Grafito. (She/Her). Visual artist originally from Colombia, now celebrating the beauty of nature in her home in Minnesota. Known for her murals, including her work with Copla Murals, her linocuts, and her work as a graphic novelist. Enjoy her workshop: linocut.

📍 lyndagrafito

Maria Constanza Carballo. (She/Her). Inspired by her own bicultural and bilingual upbringing as an immigrant in Minnesota, but has traveled with her acrylic paintings as well as mural nationally. Enjoy her workshop: Block printing

📍 shesbilingueart

Maria Lindsay. (She/Her). Colombian artist, passionate about abstract and figurative art. Using mixed media and a variety of techniques brings texture and personality to her work. Working as an artist for over 15 years, Lindsay loves to empower other artists and share her knowledge with anyone who wants to venture into the arts. Buy her inspirational art pieces.

📍 marialindsayartist

León Currie. (They/Them). Multimedia artist based in Minneapolis. Their work examines being both a battleground and a sanctuary. The vulnerable and restless body is a starting point. Collaging with film photography, and drawing on cardboard, resin, textiles, cardstock, printer, notebook, and tracing paper. Currie activates the physical and the tactile qualities of contradictory conditions. Enjoy their workshop: Sketchbook collage.

📍 leoncurrie

Sonia Pereira. (She/Her). Interdisciplinary artist, creative, and teacher from Honduras. She makes paintings, drawings, sculptures, and installations. Enjoy her workshop: Flora and fauna drawing.

Art Exhibition: Immigrant Roads by Kandace Creel Falcón, Ph.D (She/They)

An interdisciplinary feminist scholar, writer, and visual artist based in rural Erhard, MN. Drawn to inquiry and mixed-media methods of painting, fabric arts, and writing, their work is committed to sharing narratives for social transformation.
