Emergency Contact List: Includes family members, friends, schools, and trusted organizations. Create a list, print it, carry it with you, share it with anyone who may help you, and have them call your emergency contact in case of a detention.

Travel consent: If one parent/guardian is present, no consent is needed. If it is a non-custodial guardian, they must complete the form for traveling with the minor.

Family Plan: Define where to reunite and how to communicate in case of separation. Keep copies of passports, birth certificates, and medical records in both physical and digital formats.
